

1. The College

Established in the year 1960, this college has been an important centre of learning and only Govt. College in the undivided district of Phulbani. The College started functioning as Govt. Science College, Phulbani in the A.J.O. High School building of Phulbani in 1960 with Dr. Dasarathi Mishra as Administrator and seven other faculty members. It was shifted to the present building seven years later in 1967. Striding along the years, the college has assumed modified names - Govt. College, Phulbani, Chakara Bisoyi Mahavidyalaya, Phulbani. It was renamed as Govt. Autonomous College, Phulbani consequent upon the Autonomous status conferred on 24.09.04 by the University Grants Commission, New Delhi.

In its steady march over the years new courses have been added. P.G. in Political Science, Life Science, Physics, Economics and Anthropology have been opened to cater to the needs of the growing demands of the learners of this tribal-dominated region. The college is poised for growth and is dedicated to further higher education in the face of challenging situation.

The Principal and his staff members are always ready to address to the emergent needs of the learners.
