1.3.1 Institution integrates crosscutting issues relevant to Professional Ethics ,Gender, Human Values ,Environment and Sustainability into the Curriculum.

Response:

Holistic development of students is the main purpose of curriculum. Some added courses and activities which may or may not directly link with one's discipline of study but contributes for sensitizing students to cross-cutting issues relevant to the current pressing concerns, both nationally and globally, such as gender, environment and sustainability, human values and professional ethics and development of creative competencies.

1. Professional Ethics and Human Values

Issues relevant to Professional Ethics and Human Values are reflected in the course Ethics and Values which is a compulsory course for all the UG Programs. Courses like Ethics, Applied Ethics in the Dept. of Philosophy, Women's Writing, Partition Literature, English, Odishara Sanskritika Itihas O Bhasha Sahitya in Dept. of Odia, Introduction to Human Rights, Social Movements in Contemporary India, Women, Power and Politics in Dept. of Political Science, Management Principles and Application, Principles of Marketing etc from dept of Commerce and BBA also offer courses related to Professional Ethics and Human Values.

2. Gender sensitization

Gender Sensitization is addressed in Ethics and Values course, a compulsory course in all UG Programs and also in different specific programs like Philosophy, Anthropology, English, Odia, and Political Science and in some other Arts and Humanities programs. All these programs offer courses that helps students do develop an insight into the life, struggles and challenges for the other genders which make them more sensitive to the people of other gender.

3. Environment and Sustainability

Issues related with environment and sustainability is integrated into courses of Environmental studies which is a compulsory core paper for all the Undergraduate programs. It is also a part of the curricula in Specific UG Program related to Zoology, Botany, Geography and Anthropology.

4. Co-Curricular Activities on above values

Apart from the curricula, various co-curricular and extra-curricular activities like celebration of national and international days of importance like Independence Day, Republic Day, International Women's Day, Voter's Day. Various literary are competitions organized on these occasions among the students to sensitize them on the issues related to human values, ethics, gender and environment and sustainability.

The college has NCC Wing, NSS, YRC which is an excellent platform for the students to learn teamwork, patriotic values, volunteering and gives them opportunity to learn about human values and ethics.

N.S.S. promotes environmental protection through tree plantation and other sustainable development programs. N.S.S. and N.C.C. organizes various environment related programs including tree plantation, awareness on gender equality, health issues, health awareness camps, road safety Programs conducted under N. S. S., N.C.C., YRC & Politicalscience and Philosophy department help to inculcate human values among students. Different social activities have been initiated by the college like Voter's awareness Program, Road Safety Campaign, Blood Donation camps, etc are organized from time to time. Major gender issues are focused and addressed through different activities in the college.

The college also has an active Anti- Ragging Cell, which promotes human values and gender sensitization by providing counseling to students to prevent any kind of Ragging or Harassment of students.
